Debtor.

SUPPLEMENTAL CERTIFICATION IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO DISMISS INVOLUNTARY PETITION AND FOR SANCTIONS

M. David Graubard, an attorney admitted to practice in the Eastern District of New York, hereby certifies the following to be true under the penalties of perjury:

1. Affirmant is counsel for the alleged debtor CNG Foods LLC ("CNG") and makes this Certification based upon his own personal knowledge and information gleaned from the records of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, County of Kings and this Court.
2. The alleged debtor made a Motion to Dismiss the Involuntary Petition and for Sanctions based upon the bad faith filing of the involuntary petition as an effort by the petitioning creditors to avoid a hearing on contempt that was scheduled in the state court.
3. At the hearing held on November 17, 2016, this Court noted that the petitioning creditors still had time to get a supplemental summons and to have it served properly before the 120 days expired under F.R.Civ.P. Rule 4(m) made applicable by F.R.B.P. 7004(a).

4. The original summons was issued on July 28, 2016, so that the 120 day period expired on November 25, 2016. Although the supplemental summons was issued on November 18, 2016 (see copy of the docket sheet as of December 8, 2016 annexed hereto as Exhibit A), there is no affidavit of service on file. Moreover, Affirmant is advised by Ms. Deena Zaitschek, the managing member of the debtor, that neither she nor the debtor have been served with the supplemental summons and/or copy of the involuntary petition.

5. Pursuant to F.R.Civ.P. Rule 4(l)(1), a Proof of Service is required to be filed with the Court. Obviously, this has not been done and, in fact, service was never even accomplished with respect to the supplemental summons.

6. Accordingly, in addition to all the reasons set forth in the underlying Motion to Dismiss the Involuntary Petition and for Sanctions, the additional "second bit of the apple" even to the petitioning creditors to serve the supplemental summons has failed.

7. Without prejudice to the arguments set forth herein, to the extent necessary with respect to the Supplemental Summons, the alleged debtor incorporates by reference the Motion to Dismiss Involuntary Petition and for Sanctions previously made and now adjourned to January 18, 2017.

WHEREFORE, Affirmant respectfully requests that this Court grant the Motion to Dismiss the Involuntary Petition and for Sanctions for the bad faith filing of the involuntary petition, as more fully set forth in the underlying motion, together with such other and further relief as may be proper.
